ERRORS MAR GOOD PITCHING BATTLE

V. P. I. Finally Wins in Close Struggle From Yellow Jackets, 3 to 0.

Ashland, Va., April 18.—In a hard fought game Virginia Polytechnic Institute defeated Randolph-Macon here this afternoon, 3 to 0. The game was a pitcher's battle from beginning to end, and was only marred by errors. Maistrion for the Yellow Jackets, pitched seven innings of good ball, and Coach Reiss took him out to save him for the first championship game next Wednesday.

It was the first game he had pitched for two weeks, and errors caused the scores that were made by the Techs. Rogers had the locals fooled, as he only allowed them four hits. Barrow, who relieved Maistrion, pitched good ball. The score:

PHILLIES STILL WINNING

Philadelphia, April 18.—Boss Doolin's Phillies continued their winning campaign today when they annexed the straight victory, defeating George Stahlberg's rejuvenated Boston Braves by a score of 5 to 3. The heavy artillery of the Phillies played havoc with Boston's defense, and the big Boston twirler retired in favor of Crutcher in the seventh.

Boyd Puckett hit a home run into the left field bleachers in the first inning for the first run. The score:

LOWLY CARDS WIN

St. Louis, April 18.—The lowly Cardinals won from the Cubs today, 5 to 2, due largely to Cubs being outpitched by Robinson. The Cubs were shut out until the ninth, when Sweeney singled and came across when Zimmerman's rejuvenated Boston Braves hit a sacrifice after he had been assisted to third by an infield out. Worth sacrificed, after which Griffin, Newton and Snyder all got safeties. Peterburg scored first in the second round. Jackie got a double, went to third, when Newton wobbled on Damrau's offer and came across from Laughlin's tap. An infield blow by Craven in the sixth, followed by Jackie's second hit—this time for three bases—brought the second Gooker tally. The real slugging period for the visitors was the eighth, when three solid clouts, one for three bases by Damrau, an almost exact duplicate for solid Dolly Gray gave in the first, netted two scores.

It just wasn't Peterburg's day. Likewise, Ryan's assertion that he has the hardest hitting club in the league seems very nearly borne out. There was little need for science. Somebody got on and then somebody, or somebody, came along and drove him in. The score follows:

more pulled the strategical stuff, and an unheard-of felling, named Pearson, was uncovered. But yesterday—ah, yesterday!—the flinging sensation of the ages was unveiled and something like 4,000 bugs and buglets awaited the unveiling. Shortly after the end of hostilities, the veil was gently redrawn athwart the manly form of Mr. Nolan, and he must rest in the hope of having greater success upon his next appearance.

EVERYBODY HITS MR. NOLAN.

Everybody but the bat boy took a swat at the leather. Of course the bat boy wasn't quite in the game, which is some excuse for him. Ryan's young men didn't wait long to muss up Mr. Nolan. They started in the opening chapter and kept it up until "finis" had been written. Four runs, quite enough for the game, were hung out in that opening frame. Doctor Newton started with a two-ply slam, after which Berger sacrificed, Lefty Snyder walked, and Dolly Gray cleared up the argument by hitting a selection from Mr. lan to the right-field fence for three bases. John Raley duplicated that performance, while Dave Bunting gave the first exhibition of the squeeze yet noticed in the local lot. At the round-up the count stood 4 and 0, quite enough to take the confidence out of the visitors, and especially out of Mr. Nolan.

FREE-HITTING CONTEST.

It might be called a free-hitting contest, safe aways being so free that the two clubs engaged in the pastime annexed a total of twenty-four as reward for the afternoon's work. This total was distributed, giving Richmond fourteen and Petersburg ten. It was not so much that the Crookers failed to connect with the ball as it was that the Colts connected often.

Snyder's Perfect Day.

Lefty Snyder had a perfect day. Four times he journeyed to the platter, and four times he delivered with safe blows. Likewise, Lefty has three runs to his credit. He gave about the most consistent performance of anybody on the club. There was nothing particularly spectacular in his work. It was more of the plodding variety. Doc Newton is also entitled to some of the glory, so long as it is being handed around, for Doc hit safely twice and scored two runs. Altogether, it was quite some day for the local contingent, and each and every member of the team contributed to the displeasure that accompanied the platoon from Petersburg on their way home.

After the first frame the Colts scored whenever they wanted—or, at least, that's the way it appeared. They added two counters in the third, just to keep up the fireworks. Snyder doubled, counting on Raley's hit. Two bases on balls and a wild heave by Mr. Nolan brought Honest John to third, and he cashed when Worth delivered. A seventh run was added to the total in the sixth, and still another in the seventh. The eighth was more productive, and three were garnered. Edwards hit,

SOX TAKE WEIRD GAME

Chicago, April 18.—The Sox continued their winning streak by beating the Browns in a weird game today. The score was 5 to 3. It was Sox vs. Baumgardner at the start, but the former gave way to a pinch hitter, while Baumgardner went wild and retired in favor of Hamilton. Demitt scored from Detroit, reported just before the game, was called upon to pinch hit, and made good with a triple. The score:
